Subject: - Training Programme on Emerging Perspectives on Gender, Labour Laws and International Labour Standards from May 01-04, 2018 at VVG NLI Campus, NOIDA

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are glad to inform you that a Training Programme on Emerging Perspectives on Gender, Labour Laws and International Labour Standards will be held from May 01-04, 2018 at V. V. Giri National Labour Institute's campus, NOIDA.

The aim of the programme is to sensitize the participants about the inequalities prevalent in the world of work and the challenges faced by women in the labour market. This training programme has been designed for the Government Officials, Union Leaders from Central Trade Unions and civil society representatives. A copy of the programme brochure is enclosed for details.

There is no programme fee. The Institute would provide free boarding and lodging facility and will reimburse to and fro Second Class Sleeper train fare on production of tickets to the participants. It may be ensured that nominee(s) should have Aadhar number. The nominations of only those participants will be accepted who have Aadhar number and bank account. The reimbursement of travel fare to the nominees would be made through NEFT only. The nominee(s) may be informed to bring their Aadhar Card and bank details (name of bank, name of bank branch, IFSC code and bank account no.) with them. The bank details may be indicated by nominee while filling up TA form at the institute. All the nominees may be informed accordingly.

We request you to nominate 03 officials from your organisation. It may be ensured that those who have earlier attended the Institute's programme are not nominated again. We will highly appreciate participation of women. Because of limited number of seats, the Institute will be constrained to admit only 03 participants from one organization on first-come-first serve basis and regret acceptance thereafter. You may kindly forward the names of the participants alongwith nomination forms duly filled in by the nominees. The last date for receiving nominations is April 23, 2018.

With regards,.

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. H. Srinivas)

AIM

The programme endeavours to sensitize the participants about the inequalities prevalent in the world of work and the challenges faced by women in the labour market. It would also enable the participants in developing an understanding about the existing legal instruments and international labour standards for ensuring equality at workplace and promoting workers' rights based on a model of social justice. The programme also aims to address the larger questions on intersection of paid work and unpaid unpaid/care work and recognition of care as a right that need to be incorporated into the policy framework for facilitating women's employment and sustenance in the labour market.

OBJECTIVES:

- To provide an overview of gender and the labour market.
- To analyse gender inequalities and discriminatory practices with regard to access to labour market, wages, working conditions, employment security, etc.
- To understand the gendered vulnerabilities and intersection of paid work and unpaid/care work, challenges in reconciling paid work and family responsibilities that leads women to precarious forms of employment that remain outside the purview of available legal and policy responses.
- To sensitize the participants about the existing legal instruments and national policies on promotion of gender equality at the workplace.
- To understand the various international labour standards/international instruments and good practices on gender equality.
To discuss about strategies of promotion of rights to fair/decent work and care within the framework of employment law and policies that would address the larger question of equality of opportunity and women's employment and sustenance in the labour market
